Certificate in US GAAP

Practical insight into US Accounting Standards

About the course

US based companies are required to follow the US Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (US GAAP) issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB). In this program, EY professionals and senior industry experts will share perspective on the US GAAP including Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) ASC 606 - Revenue from Contract with Customers, ASC 842 - Leases, ASC 326 - Impairment of Financial Assets, ASC 860 - Transfer and Servicing Assets and Liabilities, ASC 805 - Business Combinations and Accounting Standard Updates (ASU).

The program aims to provide understanding on the US GAAP through the EY experience, while focusing on practical challenges faced by industry and professionals in the application of these standards. The program embeds an inclusive discussion on recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure requirements for different ASCs and ASUs.

Program objective

On completion of the program, candidates should be able to:

- ▶ Understand and explain the structure of the framework of the US GAAP
- ▶ Apply relevant ASCs and ASUs to key elements of financial reporting
- ▶ Identify and apply disclosure requirements for companies in financial reports and notes
- ▶ Achieve a practical understanding of the key concepts and complex areas in the fields of reporting and disclosures through illustrations, case studies, examples and assessments covered in the program

Who should attend?

The program is most suited for professionals and students who are working on USGAAP or intend to learn the US GAAP and include:

- ▶ Professional accountants, company secretaries, management accountants, and other finance professionals
- ▶ Finance managers, financial controllers, accountants
- ▶ MBA finance professionals working in accounting domain
